selfish & greedy believe! Is to disgrace & dishonor all life! For us to tell ourselves to live on a "free" planet that gave "Us" free life requires the people to pay a "price" value to live happy and just to have life... Is a disgrace! A dishonor to life! Life! All life was given "free" from earth. Free life is only designed to live "free" or you do not honor truth! You live a lie! Earth has never forced any form of life to pay a "price" value to be alive & happy! So why does human life have any right to force other human life to pay a "price" value to be alive & happy? This is not free! This is slavery at its finest! Driven by lies! Created by the beliefs & influence of the selfish and greedy! You might ask how does the system force the people to pay a "price" value to be alive & happy. Very simple... The lie of technology/knowledge forcing people to pay for "free" thoughts! The lie of currency forcing the people to slave for "free" earth materials! We live in a system of terrorists backed by government laws... With threat of violence from the systems terrorist force the people to pay government taxes! Taxes that are theft! Basically strong armed robbery on a mass scale! Think about it... If the people do not pay the system its taxes... What does the system do? The system sends in their terrorists to take away the peoples right to freedom! Takes away the peoples property & happiness! This illusion we live is not free! This is slavery! When we live in a system that is allowed to force theft & slavery onto the people! We live in a system that has no truth! No honor & dignity for life! Don't even have honor & dignity for their own life to submit to the systems terrorism! All made possible by the systems threats of

Truth of Life to have

Die a product to the system! When the system refuses to teach human life the necessities human life needs to survive... Its very clear the system does not want self-sufficient "free" people! This system wants reliant slaves for profits, power & control! The system only teaches the people how to read, write and count... Thats it! The only reason even these basics are taught... Is so the people know how to "write" a check! So the people know how to "read" how much something costs & obey orders! So the people know how to "count" their money to pay for everything they want and need! Teach just enough to have reliant slaves! I see why the system does not teach the important things needed for survival... Because if the people where taught how to create all the same items this system guards for profits... Guess what? The people would no longer need this system! Bye! Bye! To the system and your evil lies! Seems strange the things the people need are the same things the system refuses to share! For profits, power & control of the people! By taking control of the knowledge and materials needed to create the same items the system provides. Lie of technology! Which formed the lie of currency! As with materials... All materials are free! Everything is built from free materials! Which means nothing has a "price" value unless you believe in lies! Its hard to not live or believe lies when since the day people are born the system & all the manipulated people teach lies and how to gather more money! The lie of currency! Why do the people need to gather money and follow a selfish & greedy lie? How about instead people gather knowledge & materials to create the same exact thing money can buy! Nope! To teach selfish & greedy are spending so much money towards another life sustaining planet... To escape the end result of this one! We need to stop this selfishness & greed! But you know maybe the system doesn't see what these lies are coming to. As the system itself is blinded by its own greed! Or is it that you just don't care? You feel a lie! The lie of currency! Money! The selfish & greedy can make the planet better again. A planet of life that has been destroyed by a lie of the selfish & greedy! For example: Mass production with mass production comes so much waste of natural resources! Depleting and destroying this planet's resources! I will use furniture as an example. Furniture is mostly made of wood as well as our homes. When new modern furniture comes out the system uses aggressive marketing tactics... Acquired from all the data harvested by the system's multiple privacy invasion tactics. Practically, mentally attacking the people forcing you to Buy! Buy! Buy! To be cool, to fit in, to be up to date, to fit in and be accepted by the rest of the people. So when the people Buy! Buy! Buy! The people just discard perfectly fine furniture simply because it is out of date. Furniture that is still comfortable and looks very nice. The only difference between the new furniture & the old is just that... One is new, up to date far as looks, style. While the furniture they had is just old, out of date far as looks & style. There is absolutely no benefit between the old & the new besides looks & style. However with aggressive marketing tactics the system can make the people believe there is! So the people buy the new discard the old... Hopefully the old furniture ends up in a home where someone actually needs it. However most are very sick minded people! And whats worse most of the people follow their lead! We the people should be out for these sick minded people belonging to the system! We need to spill their blood! These selfish & greedy are slowly killing us! So lets go back to the trees... Why do we have bad air in the first place? We have bad air because we allow this system to destroy the trees needed for air in turn for their mass production, selfish & greedy profits! We are allowing this system to constantly cut down trees to meet the demands of the people for furniture & homes! Yet trees are what life needs for air! Trees naturally create & heal our air, our ozone! Its very simple a 300 year old tree is much stronger, much more efficient when it comes to providing clean air compared to a 30 year old tree. Yet the system cuts down the 300 year old tree for more materials, more products, more profits and expects to get the same amount of clean air out of a 30 year old tree! Fucking retarded idiots! We only have the weak 30 year old tree because the system had to replace the 300 year old trees they cut down for profits! So we have the selfish & greedy profitting while life suffers for clean air! Then with aggressive marketing & manipulation the system has the people into Buy! Buy! Buy! train of thought helping the selfish & greedy destroy this planet! And because of manipulation the people don't even realize what they are doing! Instead of aggressive marketing manipulating the people into Buy!

It manipulated the people to hand over the money, the resources the system needs to do this! Killing life on this planet slowly isn't just caused by geo engineering... It is also caused by the toxic waste the system dumps into the oceans & water! Poisoning food the people eat as well as the water we drink! With oil, radiation, toxic waste... The system is not just killing the life in the water! But killing the life as a whole! Water is life! Everything needs water! Clean water! I have a serious question... Why is the system not talking about a nuclear meltdown in Japan that is causing the pacific ocean to be unsafe! Constantly leaking radiation into the ocean to the point mass death of sea life is washing to shore! A nuclear meltdown that could change life on this planet! Well thanks to the selfish & greedy, now we have a unsafe ocean! Also will the systems oil! Why doesn't this system tell the people how dangerous & hazardous these pipelines are... Destroying the environment around them! Killing life by poisoning the ground, rivers & lakes! Life can not drink radiation out of a ocean! Nor can life drink oil out of the rivers and lakes! So with oil, radiation, toxic waste, and geo engineering (chemtrails)... This system has successfully poisoned the full spectrum of what life needs to survive! Poisoned the air with chemicals we breathe! Poisoned the water with oil, toxic waste, radiation the water we as life all life need to drink! Poisoned the food we eat with the animals breathing these chemicals, living and drinking vs the people! A system for world domination! For selfish & greedy profits! Fuck you! This system constantly feeds the people lies, beliefs and illusions of life! Now these lies, beliefs have become so out of control life is running into complete extinction! This system has taught a false reality, a false happiness! A Illusion! Teaching the people the only way to a great life is to chase someone elses greed! Chase the money! Become selfish & greedy yourself work! Work! Work! Your self right into the dirt! All for nothing! To obey the selfish & greedy and give the system all the profits while... We the people aid our own destruction! To have beautiful things, great luxuries to have power & respect, to have nothing to worry about... To finally be free! Yet none of the people ever make it to the point of truly "free" til they are dead! None of the people get the chance to experience what it feels like to be "truly" free until they are in the hospital dying! All because of beliefs of lies! The influence of this system has "sold" the people a false dream! A false reality! This is what the american dream truly is! The reality of chasing the american dream... Will destroy you as a person by how this system is designed! The people will have to learn to step on toes, cut the next mans throat, to make one weaker, while you become stronger, never share anything, abandon family & friends for money, hire attorneys, get liscencing for what your passion or dream is, pay for this, pay for that! After all this chasing money madness a person finally reaches their dream. With the way reality! The system has designed the people to be fake, liar, selfish, greedy, following the lie of currency! (Money) We as human life live a contradiction to life. Code of life! Code of man. Code of life only follows the universal belief... Which is truth! Code of man only follows beliefs of man! Code of life says... Life must learn to share with all life! Because everything is free from earth! Life that does not honor universal truth! Must die to maintain peace & harmony! Code of man is the complete opposite! Code of man contradicts universal belief of truth! Yet man is life... Just in that is a contradiction as humans act as they are separate from life... Exempt from life's universal code... The universal belief of truth! Code of man says... Life must learn to be selfish & greedy with life! Because nothing is free from earth... lie! Life the does not honor the selfish & greedy truth! Must die to hide universal truth! Hide universal truth to maintain peace & harmony! There is the contradiction of man vs life. Life has always maintained the beauty of peace & harmony by universal belief of truth! Code of life is true to all life! The only life that does not follow universal belief of truth... Is human life! Hence why man has never found true peace & harmony since the creations of beliefs, influence, a code of man... Laws of the land! By man's code... No longer do the people care who they hurt! The people only truly care about how they can benefit or profit off the other people! No longer do the people truly care for their families... They just pay to feel wanted or needed by others! The system has manipulated the people so far off track from what is truth! What is real... People actually believe to buy expensive gifts & things is the way to show human life that you care, or are special to me, or appreciated! How about affection? How about quality time attention? This system has designed the people to believe money (A lie!) can truly buy love! Every human being on this earth is for sale! It's not a matter of truth... It's a matter of how much! This in itself has destroyed life's code! True value of life! The difference of what is real & what is fake! People don't even know how to truly help or share with others anymore! Unless there is benefits or profits involved! Or something to capitalize or take advantage of! This is the life we human life live! Which is sick! Nothing but a mental disorder! Deny truth for lies & beliefs! This system has taken what is real... Truth we as human life are born with. And has turned human life into a machine! A fake, selfish & greedy monster the system is! All by design! All by Beliefs! All by influence of words & language! And it's all about the profits! Can hear it every time I turn on the radio! Buy this! Buy that! Even the music itself is designed for marketing! Music no longer has heart or soul! All you hear about are cars, sex, money, houses, brand names, buy, a role model... Used to manipulate the people into buying products to support or feel like their favorite artist! Which is not a artist at all anymore! These artists profit to manipulate! Sponsored by the selfish & greedy! Human life has become nothing but a machine! Empty driven by selfishness & greed! Selfishness & greed completely destroying life's value! The code life is supposed to follow to maintain peace & harmony! This system teaches... Chase the "lie" of currency! Chase the greed dreams! Follow the laws of man created by the selfish & greedy! Become selfish & greedy as it is the only way life can survive by man's code the system! Because of all of this training! When majority of the people see someone struggling or starving... The people just ignore! Tell the struggling & starving to get a job! The people living life suffer from... lies! Lack of truth, honor & dignity for life! Unity & trust! Selfishness & Greed! Selfish & greedy people do not care about loss of real life as they can just replace real life with fake life... With the money! The lie of currency! The selfish & greedy do not truly care when they see their very own family cry! The selfish & greedy just go buy them gifts! Material items to cover for their own emotional neglect! There is nothing natural about man's code! Law of the land! The greed dream! As the greed dream contradicts universal truth! Forcing the people to chase a dream based purely on manipulation & lies! The selfish & greedy chasing a lie! An illusion! Do not care about human life! The selfish & greedy only care about profits and more greed! Which by this system's design is the only way a dream can be real! Can survive! Is to have the profits & greedy personality to carry on and prosper! There is a lot of truth to you either have time! Or money! You can never have both. And because of money (the lie of currency!)

greedy of the system just figure out ways to take more profits away from their dream! Slave to profits! Just a higher dollar product of the system! Heres where everything goes sideways... Once the people stabilize their dream financially... They get a false sense of freedom... As by the systems design money does buy freedom! Money buys power & control as well other fake people! So more money means more freedom... Which is actually manipulation into a false reality! As the system still controls their dream forced to make the system richer with all the regulations that come with a dream. Taxes, liscences, laws, etc... If this dream does not follow the systems regulations... The system will shot the dream down for disobeying the selfish & greedy! So as the people live their dream and start to taste the false freedom the profits bring... They start wanting more profits! More freedom! Not realizing they are becoming exactly what the system is designing you to be... Greedy! Wanting all the freedoms & everything they never will have... To chase a dream... Greed! All the people lose in the end... Except the selfish & greedy that are part of the system! To chase a dream in this system is a illusion... A illusion of greed! A contradictory lie of life! A perfect example of this is myself! I love arts, designs, colors, and to create and customise stoff. Anything from your home to your car, I worked very hard to achieve my dream! My passion! Yet because i had to work so hard for the money to achieve while in health i could actually enjoy it! So the sad truth of this dream is... I have destroyed "my" body! My life! Just to reach "my" passion! My dream! Which was to chill out do my art and live my life! But this is not chill as im always in pain! Pain caused by working myself to the bone... Working myself to the bone to be well enough to live and enjoy "my" dream! So while im suffering and enduring pain to keep my dream alive... Guess who is still living the good life! Living healthy & pain free! Enjoying all the luxuries and getting richer! The people belonging to the system! Charging "my" dream every which way the system can to hold me down! Charging me to endure pain & slave to my own dream! As if my dream isn't making the system profits... Then my dream gets shot down by the system! Then i would still be left in my pain & suffering! And we call this free!? Heres the problem i have with this system & "my" passion. "My" passion was for all the people to enjoy the same things i love! Not just the selfish & greedy who have money to throw around... Bot everyone! All races! All classes! All people! Cause i know what it feels like to strive and have little hope for the future! I know what it feels like to dream & have absolutely nothing! However with this systems design... I can not offer what i love to all the people! I am forced to be selfish and refuse people access to what i love! Why!? Because of my costs! The materials, the liscensing & paperwork, the insurance, and all the other bullshit this system forces to my products! Yet these middle class people have it hard enough being a slave to the system... Just like me! However the middle class would actually appreciate my love "most" of the time. Yet again i would feel guilty having to charge the middle class for my work. Very easily explained the middle class actually has to work very hard for what they have, which means the middle class understands how hard i had to work to create "my" products. Then we have the low class... The low class people would walk by while i'm working... Stop to talk admire my love with me. The low class people would actually stop to hang out! The low class would even give a little helping hand if there was something they could help with. Just to be apart of my dream! To be apart of what i love! Great feeling! Great feeling for all completed projects! However some assholes i wish i would have said fuck off! Yet the low class would stand there dreaming! Wishing! They could enjoy the beauties of what i love! Just like the middle class that had to work to the bone to enjoy the beauty with me. Unlike the high class that would just treat me as a slave... Just to have my beauty to show off! But back to the low class... It's the part that bothered me most... It's when the low class people would walk away and leave... I could sense their sadness as they walk away dreaming! My biggest problem with this system & "my" passion lies right in that statement! My passion was not to bring the people sadness or lost businesses down! Because 1) I refuse to submit to the selfish & greedy! 2) I refuse to become selfish & greedy to my own happiness or success! All I have mentioned for us a dream... Most the people are too weak to see... This is exactly what the system has done to their dream! The people do not realize what they have become chasing their dream! However I am not one of them! I see exactly how the system turns a persons dream/passion into greed! Its very simple... A person must invest money & work very hard to have the money to invest into their dream. When a person gets to their dream and stabilizes financially... The money starts rolling in... Once the money starts rolling in... Money buys false freedom... The more money a person has... The freer that person will feel! So as the money starts rolling in... buying freedoms... the person forgets all about what the dream was! Why the people even had the drive to have a dream in the first place! The people forget their reasons! Their meaning! Their purpose! The people turn their back on a dream for greed... The greed for the money... The money to have a false freedom! The people forget they chased a dream to bring change to this world! The people forget all about the pain & suffering that we live... The pain & suffering that created the dream! Yet once the people taste how money can buy false freedoms... The people then become greedy for the money! Greedy for these false freedoms! The dream... The passion has been

requires a person to learn to be selfish & greedy! This system has killed my dream! As i will not submit to the systems greed! This system has killed my passion to pursue my dream! As i will not submit to the systems greed! Because by this systems design... The system has killed and destroyed the man i am! As i will not submit, provide, or support the systems selfishness & greed! My passion! My dreams! Do not belong to the system... They are mine! This is a horror of life! Death is something i do not fear! As it happens to all of us. What i fear is what dies inside of life as we are living! Which is exactly what this system attacks, destroys & kills... It's what's inside of the people! I despise the system for this! This is my main reason for saying fuck you! For 32 years of "my" life... The system has tricked & manipulated me! Thinking i was chasing a dream... Yet i was chasing a illusion of greed! Not only did the submission to the systems selfishness & greed destroy "my" passion & dreams! With how this system is designed... No matter how hard i worked to survive as well make "my" passions & dreams reality... I was never "free! The system still had full control condemning me to be a slave! A slave to my own dreams! By this systems design all i was... Was a higher priced product operating for the system! I was not human life with a dream! No matter what i did... The system would always control my life! The system would always control "my" business, against the people for profits! The system has even destroyed a doctors passion to want to heal and help keep the people healthy! The passion has been replaced by a doctors selfishness & greed! All for the profits! Doctors no longer look at the people as a person suffering or in pain. Doctors see the people as a price tag, job security, a product, a client... Not a human being! Now health is all about how a doctor can profit off the sick & dying and keep them coming! Doctors do not want to heal the sick & dying making sure the people dont have to come back. Doctors want the people to come back... The more the people visit the doctor... The more profits a doctor makes! When a person is sick or hurt... The doctor manipulates the people with the unknown... Unknown = Fear when the people are manipulated by fear... The doctor creates a client not a cure... Clients make profits! Cures do not! For example a person with a bad back. The people have bad backs because this system forces the people to slave, work so hard to maintain a somewhat good life... Because the people are slaving, working so hard to maintain a good life... The people don't have time to maintain good health!.. Because of lack of time the people don't worry or take care of their bodies, what they are eating, eating junk food for a quick meal. The people are forced to eat junk food for the body as most jobs only offer 30 min to eat! Usually 15 min of that lunch is spent traveling to a gas station or a fast food

Steals their money again prescribing the people with addictive pain killers... The quick fix to return back to work. Now the injured person can return back to work. However as the people return to work taking addictive pain killers... They become addicted to these pain killers taking them every day to suppress the pain as the people continue to work... However through this process the doctors are still profiting off the addictive pain killers! Then as the injured person suppresses the pain caused by injury... Injury from being overworked... The original injury becomes much worse! As the addictive pain killers do not heal the injury... Only suppresses the pain to deal with the injury. The only way a injury can heal is to stop doing whatever it was that caused the injury in the first place! However the people do not have time to allow injuries to heal caused by work... Work the people must do to survive and maintain a good lifestyle! Its just another dirty cycle this system with its brilliant corruption has designed! So now as the injury has become much worse... The people have no choice but to stop working! Usually to now have surgery. But why didn't the injured person stop in the first place? Because the doctor prescribed addictive pain killers to help allow them to work and knowingly further injure the client! How do i know this is on purpose? What are all them years of schooling & degrees worth if a doctor did not? So now the doctor has created a client for pain killers... The doctor also said to be true! This is just another point to touch since i've noticed how health officials are acting the same way as government officials! Selfish & greedy! All about the profits! I'm sure even the peoples private information with doctors isn't private at all! This makes sense to me as the doctors work out of selfishness & greed! The same as the system! All for the profits! Also how this system loves to spy & pry into the peoples lives and private information... I'm sure there is some kind of contract or agreement made between government & health establishment to sell or share "clients/slaves" personal information for profits! I have no proof of this so i do not want to assume. I'm purely going off what i know about greed, privacy invasion, government & doctors do! All for the profits! When i see doctors acting just as greedy as the government... This would make perfect sense. However i do know that the system uses doctors to experiment on the people without their consent... Or the people get manipulated into the systems experiments! With vaccines, drugs and cures. For example... Cancer! I've heard the conversations doctors have with their "clients". Doctors telling their clients things like: We have these "new" technology that have been proven to have a "high" success rate... Yet this is not true! The doctor is manipulating a cancer victim into becoming a willing test subject to these new technologies in fear of their life... Or a cheaper fix to the cancer. Which does not work! All while the system is
