or to maintain the systems greed! However it is some what clear there is a privacy invasion link between the health system & government system! As both systems belong to one system... The system! Heres a better example how the peoples health is under the systems control, Health insurance. Think of how insurance always works... There is always data being tossed around to different agencies, The system has their slimy greedy hands all over all insurance... Insurance brings profits! I can almost guarantee health insurance is no difference. Which is a very bad thing to have the system having control over the peoples health with all i have said up to this point! Whatever this system chooses to touch... tends to be consumed by selfishness & greed! The peoples health should be free! Which is another example how human life has been made into a "price" value! However health should be free as the people have made the funding possible to have hospitals & doctors! Yet now the people are forced to carry health insurance... All for the profits! Forced to pay a "price" value on their own life & well being! And its by this systems design the people get hurt and sick! This is fucked! If this state ment doesn't prove slavery! I don't know what would!?, However what about the people that can't afford health insurance... Well i've been there i know this to be true... The poor get treated like no bodies, like their health don't matter... It almost like the same way as these sick government officials... It is very clear government & health care have some kind of agreement or contract for profits & greed! Whatever this agreement is.. I know this agreement or contract takes full advantage of the doctors the people trust... All for the profits and help the system slowly kill the people off! Population control! With this... The system hasn't just stolen the peoples natural rights to freedom... The system has stolen the peoples natural right to life! All for the profits and the systems sick agendas! With what i have explained now... As well all i have explained previous! So really what are the peoples natural rights anymore? The people where not given life to be forced to slave to the same forms of life! The people where not given life to be forced into the systems lies & beliefs! The people... life in general was given life to think free! Live free! Live by the universal truth! The only belief that brings universal peace & harmony! And to live by the code of life that life is born with! Not code of man! The people where not given life to follow code of man... The systems rules & slave commands! The people where given life to follow "our" hearts, dreams, and passions! The people where not given life to obey & bow to a so called "master" Government & religion... The 2 elements that make this system! The people... life in general... Was given life to be their "own" master! The people... life in general... Was not given life to be restricted to only one land, one religion, one government! The people..

130

obvious reason... The system would "not" exist in a self sufficient, self-governed world! Life would return back to code of life... One belief... Which is truth! Truth would bring peace & harmony! By code of life... Truth! Human life would no longer be easily influenced by the systems lies, beliefs & manipulation! Nor would human life allow the lies, beliefs & manipulation into truth! Into their freedom! Into the code of life! Life must follow to maintain peace & harmony! Free human life would eliminate the disgusting presents of this system! Hence by code of man... This system has to kill human life to force its disgusting lies, beliefs & manipulation onto the people! Self-sufficient, self-governed life does not allow power & control to any group or individual... Unless in defence of life! In defence of truth! In truth a free self-sufficient, self-governed world no group or any person would be able to influence lies, beliefs & manipulation for power & control... Formed by the selfish & greedy! This would be impossible to achieve as all human life would follow code of life, and the one universal belief which is truth! As self sufficient, self-governed life... Any individual or group to try and influence lies, beliefs & manipulation would fail miserably! As self-sufficient, self-governed human life would not be "forced" to listen to what any other individual says. Because self-sufficient, self-governed life would need "nothing" from another form of life! Which means by truth this system would fail miserably! Which means by

And by code of life would be taken out! To maintain peace & harmony! By truth! In a free world to be selfish & greedy with life... And live by lies... Would be just as bad as a child abuser, rapist, & murderer... Should be treated as such... Taken completely out to maintain peace & harmony! These are the exact reasons why this system of the selfish & greedy, the lies to influence, does not teach the truth! Or to be self-sufficient & Self-governed. This system would fail, would not exist, the systems sick plans would fail! The system would be destroyed by code of life & the universal belief of truth! No longer would the selfish & greedy of the system have a way to capitalize for profits... Profits for power & control... Power & control to lie & manipulate human life into slavery! By universal truth... Code of life those belonging to such a selfish & greedy, lying system would become death by the peoples hands! As all the selfish & greedy system brings is death, chaos & destruction! Which means this system is death to the people to bring selfish & greedy lies! When a system refuses to teach truth... Or how to be self-sufficient, self-governed... Which would only benefit the people... Just in that shows the system does not mean the people well! This system wants world domination, divide & conquer, slaves to profits, obey the selfish & greedy masters, die as a product of the system! This agenda would not exist in a self-sufficient, self-governed world... A free world! If this agenda of the selfish & greedy was to attempt

w

Code of life! Self-sufficient, self-governed people encourage unity among the people to have all the things the people want! Unity in itself... Is another element that would destroy this system! Think... Why is the system so strong? 1) Because the people are cowards. 2) Divide & conquer of the people 3) unity of force by threat of violence on the people! This system has worn out your welcome with your lies, betrayal, manipulation and evil selfish & greedy beliefs! With this... The system has brought chaos, death, and destruction onto the people! Which makes no sense! To destroy the people is to destroy yourself! This system has gone too far! Has crossed the line destroying the peoples natural rights to life! Refuses to allow life to be self-sufficient, self-governed and to live free! This system actually hates & kills self-sufficient self-governed people... As there is no profits, no money, no power & control with self-sufficient, self-governed people! Because plain & simple self-sufficient, self-governed people are "truly" free people! Free life! If all the people were to be entirely self-sufficient, self-governed and learned to help & share with the less fortunate... The same way natural life acts, in the wild... Human life would be free! Have everything free! No human life would be forced to go without! Now it truly makes sense as to why this system kills, destroys, and oppresses truth! The thinking of self-sufficiency & to be self-governed. Freedom! Free world there is no way to profit or capitalize off other human life! Freedom! Gives no

136

To protect life in general! Freedom! The systems lies & beliefs used to manipulate and influence would not exist! As by freedom code of life! Universal truth! There is only "one" belief to follow... Truth! Not beliefs! Not perspective! Not opinion of the majority! Truth! Freedom! This systems sick plan, to divide & conquer, world domination... Would fail miserably! As human life would only become selfish with their freedoms! The people would be strong with unity! Without the systems lies, beliefs and influence to manipulate! The people would understand the only thing they truly have... Is the sharing of life with each other! Without the support of each other there can be no peace & harmony! Freedom! If any group or individual where to attempt to contradict code of life, universal truth... And attempt this sick plan of the current system... Would be destroyed to maintain peace & harmony of the universal belief of truth! Freedom! Would have no laws or beliefs restricting human life from ending the lives of the selfish & greedy tyrants! Freedom! Thrives & survives off of code of life! The universal belief of truth! The same code/belief all life follows... Except for human life! Again this code of life is very simple... Code of life says life must learn to "share" with all life! Because everything is free! Life that does not learn to share with all life must be destroyed to maintain peace & harmony! By code of man... life must learn to be selfish & greedy... Because nothing is free! Life that does not them selves! Freedom! The people would not be forced to slave to this systems profits! Slave to this systems profits to pay for this systems lies! The lie of technology and pay this system again for the "free" earth materials... Slaving to the lie of currency... To create "free" technology! Nice plan of lies the system has here! How is it? That this system has complete control over both "free" knowledge and "free" earth materials!?. Makes sense now don't it!?. To control these 2 elements the people need to survive, prosper and have everything they want... Is the systems tactic to "control" human life! Control human life and force the people into slavery! Freedom! The people would actually have the time to help others... As free people would not be required or forced to be at any place, or any job... To maintain a good life slaving for the selfish & greedy master! In freedom! Self-sufficient, self-governed people would have all they need for themselves! Which means the people would have all the time to do whatever they wish! People are naturally good natured... To want to help others... If they have the time... Also before the influence & manipulation of the selfish & greedy! Freedom! If something required a group effort to complete something efficiently... Such as a road... Freedom! There would be no excuses, reasons, or anything restricting the people from helping each other build a road. Freedom! The people wouldn't be trapped at a job slaving for the selfish & greedy master... Stealing 8 hours of the peoples the lie of currency... Would bring unity! Freedom there would be very little crime... Simply because the influence of this systems selfish & greedy lies and beliefs would not exist! Its because of this system there is pain & suffering... Pain & suffering creates criminals... Criminals create crime! I've already explained this. The only people to be considered true harmful criminals in a free world... Would be the selfish & greedy tyrants! The same selfish & greedy tyrants that run this system! By code of life! Universal truth! Human life destroys the selfish & greedy tyrants to maintain peace & harmony! Freedom! Pain & suffering would be very low... Without the current system of lies & beliefs... Failure, pain & suffering... Would only be caused by a persons laziness, lack of motivation... And would only have their self to blame if by truth! Everything was free! Again take away the lie of currency... A lot of the pain & suffering would end with this lie! Freedom! People would no longer be forced to do things they don't want to. Such as having to slave at a dead end job, forced to work through injury, forced to deal with the harm of the selfish & greedy, and forced to deal with people they don't like. Such as bosses, managers, CEOs, laws protecting a seperation of marriage, harmful roommates, and just all around assholes that like to make others lives hell to please their selfish beliefs & egos! Freedom! As i have said before... Failure, lack of success would be caused by a persons lack of motivation. Failure would "not" be not fall for the systems lies, beliefs, tricks and manipulation that has been forced onto the people by threat of violence! When this system rejects the people from "free" knowledge by changing a "price" value on free thoughts... The system has been corrupted by selfishness & greed... Enforcing lies onto the people... To enslave the people! When this system rejects the people from the "free" earth materials by changing a "price" value... The system has been corrupted by selfishness & greed... Enforcing lies onto the people... To enslave the people to profits! This is exactly how this whole mess had started! To turn something free... truth! Manipulate truth... So that free has value... Force value to gain power & control to enslave the people! Manipulate the people with lies! Forcing the people to conform by threat of violence... This is the seed... The beginning foundation of civilized man! The truth! Which is the exact reason the system fears the truth! Which is the exact reason the system has manipulated the people to fear truth! The exact reason the system fears freedom! The exact reason the system kills truth! Oppresses freedom! Is by truth! This system should not exist! The system is a lie! A scam! And must be destroyed by honor of life & truth! Government & religion are nothing but a illusion of fear! This system with the lies, the secret agendas, the power, the luxuries, the laziness, the selfishness, the greed, and you as a person who supports the system does not exist! By truth! This system has no power unless life around you! A true leader would put their own blood on the ground fighting to save life! Not forced, not bribed, not manipulated into a fight... But would personally make the choice to do what is right! To join the front line and die in honor of life! A true leader will always protect life! Not what this system does... Hides in buildings and sacrifices human lives! While the leaders hide behind gangs of terrorists commanding orders! A true leader would personally throw themselves in the line of fire to protect life! A true leader would not wish death to any life... Unless that life does not honor the code of life! The universal truth to maintain peace & harmony of all life! But if death must come... A true leader would wish death upon themselves before any life must be lost! A true leader would not train terrorists to have a gang to hide behind & sacrifice manipulated life! A true leader would take matters into their own hands... Get out there and do any dirty work that must be done! A true leader does not act high & mighty! Nor does a true leader want that title. A true leader would show life exactly how to be their own leaders! A true leader does not want control or power. A true leader wants peace & harmony! A true leader's only purpose is to show by example... life how to maintain peace & harmony! A true leader does not force life to follow or listen out of fear! A true leader does not need life to follow or listen... But would teach how to listen to yourself. A true leader does not divide life with lies, to full. A true leader would only be there when asked... Would not assume him/her knows what is best for that individual life! As a true leader... The only thing that is a must for life... It's life "must" follow code of life to maintain peace & harmony! Life "must" follow universal belief by code of life... Which is truth! To maintain peace & harmony! That is the only purpose to a true leader is to bring and maintain "true" peace & harmony! This kind of leader... A true leader! Would set life free of the chains... The beliefs of the mind keeping life trapped in a manipulative, destructive system! A true leader would end life's pain, suffering and sadness. A true leader would not expect praise for doing this... A true leader would praise the people for doing this for themselves! Would praise the people for becoming their own leaders! Praise the people for being brave enough to let go of the selfish & greedy beliefs the people have been taught to live by! Most important a true leader would teach the people how to protect & defend life as a whole! Would also provide life with everything needed to protect & defend life! A true leader would not pretend to be almighty protector of life... A true leader would teach the people... They are the almighty protectors of life! A true leader would create the strong & the brave! Not allow life to be the weak & the scared! This is what a true leader consists of! Which is nothing close to any person belonging to the system is! The system and your leaders have no created anything for life... Besides death & destruction! The only things human "free" life to believe in the same manipulation!

142

144

146

148

As a adult... Anything the adult believes will be forced onto their child by threat of punishment... To believe the same manipulative lies... Such as currency! So now with all i have said in this letter... Let me sum it all up for the manipulated people... And the sick, selfish & greedy running this system. This path of destruction human life was put on... Starts here... Starts with manipulative beliefs... That contradict code of life! Contradict the universal belief of truth! This mess all started with the development of technology... More specific... The technology of writing & language... When man developed a systematic way to write & speak... Human life took a dangerous turn for the worse! Only with words & language can human life influence other human life with lies & beliefs! So now we have words & language to influence... With the systematic development of words & language came religion... Code of man! Religion is the core problem with everything! With religion... Code of man... Came lies, manipulation & forced beliefs! Religion is the worse thing to ever happen to human life! Religion is what created slavery... Slavery by forced beliefs...
Forced beliefs enslaving lives free will & free thinking...
Freedom! This is how... Religion was considered to be a high class knowledge of ~~not~~ intelligence & royalty...
Yet that was nothing but a show a manipulation tactic to influence human life to willingly, peacefully follow murdered & killed the code of life! The universal belief of truth! leaving human life only to follow and be influenced and manipulated by lies! Well somewhere in time things had to change... Reason unknown... So religion created and founded a new manipulation... A new influence of beliefs known as government. A all kings united system formed supported & funded by religious priests & churches... Just a guess... Government was created to simply take the public eye off the priests and churches. Government is a illusion of religion. Still to this day government & religion are the same exact thing as when both manipulations were created. Priests & churches control the presidents & the banks... This is why history has... And always will continue to repeat! As the lie & manipulation still exists... Running the show hiding behind government. Government is just the fall guy... To take the heat off the churches & priests... While these mental disordered, sick fucks with their books & beliefs continue to their world domination agendas! This pretty much sums up this whole letter... If you need more detail I advise you to use your brain and reread this letter! Now on a personal note... My slave name is J A... B J i... F I have given you the people all i see! All my reasons as to why i must take action! At the current i stand alone in my actions! Which is fine! I don't wish the people any harm... I wish the people freedom! To follow my path, my actions may lead to death! However there are for profits! The system thinks it has a right to force honor, dignity & truth... Freedom away from life! This system has only brought chaos, death, and destruction to life! This system is only killing life! The people I stand for have fallen to deep into the systems trap! That's why this action... This letter is a must for the people to see! The truth! Truth in hopes to restore peace & harmony to life! As this systems trap has turned good people bad with the manipulation of beliefs causing chaos among the people! This system is enemy to life! This system has always been war on the people since the beginning of "civilized" man, code of man, forced religion! Divide & conquer for world domination! I care for life! It is the duty of life! To protect & defend life against life that seeks to destroy life! This selfish & greedy system! However if any human life helps assist the system... To help this system send terrorist gangs against me... That will automatically put human life in the same group as the system... Terrorists enemy to human life! I only stand for honor, dignity & truth of human life! I wish human life free from this terrorist system! I will only expect the same from the same human life I wish freedom! This is sad & bothers me deeply human life has come to this cross road and must choose a side! Its either you have honor, dignity & truth for life! Or you follow the lies and wish death to life by believing in the system! Any individual who wishes me most be done! This systems lies, beliefs, manipulation & influence must go! By code of life! Universal truth! Far as the systems terrorists... Police, military or any other agency under the systems rule. I understand you have a job to do... However your job is to protect life from the selfish & greedy! Protect life from the influence of lies, beliefs & manipulation! It should be you... The people or person writing this letter to protect life! So with that being said... I will not honor or respect commands of the systems terrorists! Nor will I submit or surrender to the systems terrorism! I) For) the people give my word... I come in peace! I will not bring harm or violence to any life belonging to these terrorist gangs... Unless these terrorist gangs continue their terrorism on human life and force my hand to protect & defend the honor & dignity of life! Even though this system has trained these people to protect & defend the systems... While these people bring terrorism onto the people! I understand the police, military and all the other agencies are just as brain washed by the lies, beliefs & manipulation of the system... Just as well as everyone else. The police, military and the others belonging to secret agencies are life... The same life I choose to protect & defend against the system! However... If any of these trained terrorists force this systems commands, laws, or force their will on free life... That is aggression! That is engagement of war! Forcing chaos on life will not probably chosen a different route... But I refuse to have others support my destiny... A destiny that could bring the life I wish to protect death! I J.A. & the people has stolen firearms! I will tell you why... I would've gladly have purchased these firearms if it was legal for me to do so... But it is not! I am a felon by the systems records & beliefs! However how does this make sense? The 2nd amendment says nothing about being "law abiding"... The 2nd amendment says nothing about who can & can't own a firearm! My example... It's actually a perfect example how "laws" protect the system... Not the people! How laws create criminals... Instead of preventing crime! I did not want to do this... But I had no choice! I have never been a thief! I hate thieves! However since this system has stolen my natural right to protect & defend life... This system has left me no choice but to commit crime to have the means to protect life! As where life stands at the current... Someone needs to stand up for the freedoms life deserves! Someone needs to bring honor & dignity back into life! Someone needs to honor truth! To the people... The life I wish to protect & defend... I J.A... B.J.A... F I truly do apologize! To the system... Fuck off! I have every right as a free human to protect & defend life! However here's one thing the people over look... Firearms are not there just to protect & defend life... Firearms are available to have the ability to efficiently hunt & feed yourself.

150

152

obeyed the selfish & greedy masters and not have broken code of man... Broken the law! Well... Fuck off! As because of the code of man... the selfish & greedy masters of the system... I had no choice but to break the law & disobey the selfish & greedy masters again! This system has no right to deny life anything... As life is free! I'm life! So i have every right to have firearms that are used to protect & defend life and maintain survival! Again i apologize to the people! I had no choice... It was the only way to obtain a firearm for my protection & survival! I had to steal it! And obviously reading this letter you would understand why i need the protection. So i ask all the people including the system... Give me honor & dignity! I J. To be J. Revealed i gave you truth! The only person or people i will allow to pass judgement or punishment to my name and person... Are only the people or person i have victimized by loss of property... Which would be the owners of the weapons i have stole! I will not take criticism, judgement or punishment from any others! Take your lies... Your beliefs and shove them up your ass if you where not the victim! I know i have done wrong! I will only answer to the victim! So don't go labeling me a dangerous criminal of a violent terrorist! I didn't want to have to do this... But i must to protect & defend life! To protect & defend truth! To protect & defend myself! So to the system... Tell the truth! That because of the system... I had no other options but to control or steal! As a free individual! As free life! The only way this system will take control of my life... Is over my dead body! All I ask is to set life free! Also... I ask... If not by death the system captures me... Don't torture me! Don't cage me! Don't chain me! Walk me to a honorable death! I ask the system to give honor & dignity to my words! Give honor & dignity to life! If I must walk to my death... I choose my death to be carried out by the hands of the president! The leader of the people! Not in secret either! On live t.v. ... Allow me to freely & peacefully walk to my death! In front of all the people, I wished freedom! To fall by the president... The leader that has no honor or dignity for life! Honor my words with this honorable death! If my life is not taken by the hands of the systems terrorists! Thank You! For reading and taking the time out of your life to listen. This is the last amount of respect this system will get from me... As even the system is made up of human life! I did not want to do this... The system leaves me no choice! As I must honor truth! I must honor life! I must at least try to bring truth, honor & dignity back into life! Which can only be possible by killing the influence of this system! I want peace & harmony restored to life! But I do understand with all the lies, beliefs & manipulation of this system... Peace & harmony can only be the aftermath of what must be done! If in death is the only way human life can be free! Life has nothing to lose defending itself! Life has lost
